It is made pursuant to section 54 (1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and sets out the steps we have taken to ensure that our business as well as our supply chains are free from slavery and human trafficking during the financial year ending 31/12/2021.

Within the Altro group, we are committed to preventing slavery and human trafficking occurring in any of our corporate activities, as well as seeking to ensure that our supply chains are also free from such practices.

The topic of modern slavery continues to be an important theme for The Altro Group plc and we continue to increase awareness both internally and within our external supply chain. We have been tracking against a number of actions through the year and will report on these within this statement. slavery. We expect the same high standards from both our suppliers and our distributors.

Our Supply Chain

Our supply chain is diverse and ranges from suppliers of raw material for our manufacturing plants right through to finished goods and services. The majority of our raw materials and finished goods are from either UK or European sources with some coming from the USA and Asia.

The majority of the flooring is manufactured in either the UK or Germany, with the vehicle care chemicals being manufactured in the UK. Walling products, along with accessory items for both the flooring and vehicle care chemicals, are bought in goods that are generally managed by the Procurement teams.

The Procurement team use the category management model for suppliers which ensures cross functional activity is captured and all necessary functions are included in the decision making process. During the pandemic the main focus of the Procurement Team has been to maintain raw material, and bought in goods, supply to ensure that manufacturing can continue. This has enabled continuity of supply to our customers throughout the period.

Policies and Staff Training

Having reviewed and amended our staff policies and training we continued to look for ways to increase our staff awareness. The actions we have taken in 2021 are:

- The recruitment agency agreements have been reviewed and amended to ensure that the provision of temporary agency staff is compliant with modern slavery legislation. The new agreements are being circulated during 2022.

Due Diligence

We have processes in place to assess and manage our suppliers, both new and established, from the tender process, to new supplier meetings and service level agreements.

Steps that we have taken in 2021 to improve on our processes and increase awareness are:

- We are continuing to map our supply chain. This has involved completing tier 1 mapping for Altro Floors and the majority of Altro Resins and Altro Walls. We have also added the Autoglym suppliers and products to the list so that this can be worked on.
- We have not identified any high risk suppliers and so no audits have been carried out in 2021.
- We have started the process of reviewing our indirect spend suppliers within Altro Floors and have pulled together a variety of data to help us delve deeper into these categories and their supply chain practices.

Next Steps

We remain committed to supporting the Modern Slavery Act 2015 throughout 2022.

Our next steps in 2022 are:

- To continue working on our supply chain mapping at a tier one level. To complete mapping for Altro Resins, Altro Walls and Autoglym.
- To audit any suppliers that may be identified as high risk.
- To continue with an annual splashscreen update for all staff to maintain their awareness of modern slavery.
- To support our overseas subsidiaries in adopting best practice in the mapping of their supply chain in relation to modern slavery.
- To continue the review of indirect spend suppliers within Altro Floors which will include their supply chain practices.
- To distribute the revised recruitment agency agreements to the agencies on the preferred supplier list.

Accomplishments To Date

As we are now onto our fourth modern slavery statement we thought it would be good to list all of the actions we have achieved to date, since our statements first started in 2017.

- A presentation is given to the directors each year to make them aware of each statement before it is published.
- Increase in employee awareness through an initial presentation and annual splashscreen.
- We have updated our Whistleblowing Policy.
- We have updated our induction process to include modern slavery and human trafficking.
- We have updated our legal templates where applicable.
- The Global Slavery Index is used to identify high risk countries and associated suppliers have been questioned to better understand their supply chains.
- Where we have suppliers with on-site staff we have collated their modern slavery statements.
- A review of the new supplier process and updated form with increased data capture.
- We have sent out a supplier communication which shares our view on modern slavery and our expectations of our suppliers.
- Our Procurement Culture Questionnaire was sent out to all IT and clothing suppliers as they are seen as higher risk categories. We also shared our policies where needed to give our suppliers guidance.
- We carried out an audit of a potential new supplier based in China close to the border with North Korea as it was considered higher risk. The audit was clear.
- We have completed supply chain mapping to tier one for the Altro Floors suppliers.
- Modern Slavery is now part of the induction process for new starters.

Closing Statement

2021 has been another challenging year for many companies in the UK and across the world. The safety and wellbeing of our staff is of paramount importance to us, whilst we made plans to ensure the continuity of the business during such unprecedented and challenging times. Even with the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic we remained mindful, as a business, of our responsibility to always be aware of the prospect of modern slavery within our supply chain and act accordingly to help eradicate it.

We feel we are taking the right steps on our journey regarding modern slavery. Some of the actions we recognise will take a long time to complete, for example the supply chain mapping. We hope to report year on year progress with these lengthy tasks to show that we are continuing to identify and report any instances that we do find and how we are tackling these.

As an organisation we are committed to the welfare of our staff, customers, suppliers and other stakeholders through a zero harm initiative. We feel that there is more that can be done both internally and externally to help eradicate modern slavery and the aim is to work through the various actions that we have identified, with the resource that we have. If we keep modern slavery high on our agenda we believe we can help to make a difference.
